Scottish hardstone and yellow metal vinaigrette,

A Scottish hardstone and yellow metal (tests as gold) vinaigrette, 19th Century, rock crystal(?) mounted lid, pierced and engraved yellow metal mounts, 6cm.

There is a noticeable gap in the metal on the bottom. The metal under the hinge is slightly damaged and has lost its pattern. The lid does not sit flush on the left-hand-side. There are some fine surface scratches to the lid. The dark green panel has a chip and horizontal crack. There is a scratch to the neighbouring red panel and a small chip and scratch to one of the grey banded agate panels. The edges of all the panels are slightly rough. Please see additional uploaded images.
