A Regency mahogany dressing table

A Regency mahogany dressing table, in the manner of Gillow's of Lancaster, three-quarter gallery, inverted bow-front centre section with a single drawer, flanked by drawers and cupboards, spaced by fluted engaged legs, brass toes and castors, width 135cm, depth 60cm, height 86cm.

Old repairs/refixing to the gallery, the top has some scratches and marks, small infilled split to front right corner, right handle of centre drawer is missing, two circular handle plaques missing from side drawers, there is a working key for both cupboards and locks that work, left side bottom section of reeding is loose but we have the piece, legs and casters are good.
